

Please don't prevent Satellite Radio outlets like XM from competing with traditional radio outlets. Satellite Radio gives the American consumers the option to subscribe to high quality programming, which should be allowed to include local programming. The NAB should look to improve the quality of traditional radio industry's product rather than shut out competition. I urge you to reject petition 04-160.